

When I'm Alone

The Rifles

Every time I catch your eye in street lights
Late at night when I walk you home
I hate to think that you're not mine
So then I try to make you feel I don't want you
I don't want to go down that road
We always get in a big fight
It happens all the time So when I say that I'm just your friend
And I'm willing to try
No I won't carry on pretending it's all lie Because I smile when you're there
But I cry when I'm all alone
But it's far too hard to say to you "Don't go" Every time I hear your voice on the phone line
Late at night when you're feeling low
And you're telling me to come over
It happens all the time So when I say that I'm just your friend and I'm willing to try
No I won't carry on pretending it's all a lie Because I smile when you're there
But I cry when I'm all alone
But it's far too hard to say to you "Don't go"
