Fake A Smile

Liv Kristine

Living souls around me
They don't see
Just staring, closed faces
Fake a smileShaking hands, shake their heads
But they don't speak
Only demanding the right numbers
Of me, breaking into pieces
I'm breaking into piecesMy world is turning too fast
And I can't get off this spin
I'm moving somewhere I don't want
But all I do is fake a smileIt's so cold around me
I hurry to the next stop
I'm waiting, for something
For someone, to steer me back to my life
Steer me back to my lifeMy world is turning too fast
And I can't get off this spin
I'm moving somewhere I don't want
But all I do is fake a smileWhen will I break
When does the ice break
When will I dare to press rewind and start all overThis world is turning too fast
And I can't get off this spin
I'm moving somewhere I don't want
But all I do is fake a smileThis world is turning too faaast...
I'm moving somewheeere...
And fake a smile
