

Fake A Smile

Liv Kristine

Living souls around me
They don't see
Just staring, closed faces
Fake a smile Shaking hands, shake their heads
But they don't speak
Only demanding the right numbers
Of me, breaking into pieces
I'm breaking into pieces My world is turning too fast
And I can't get off this spin
I'm moving somewhere I don't want
But all I do is fake a smile It's so cold around me
I hurry to the next stop
I'm waiting, for something
For someone, to steer me back to my life
Steer me back to my life My world is turning too fast
And I can't get off this spin
I'm moving somewhere I don't want
But all I do is fake a smile When will I break
When does the ice break
When will I dare to press rewind and start all over This world is turning too fast
And I can't get off this spin
I'm moving somewhere I don't want
But all I do is fake a smile This world is turning too faaast...
I'm moving somewheere...
And fake a smile
