Seize the Day

Seven Circles

Hey, oh, well, it's my turn now
You've just lost your precious spot somehow
Me, I'll take it all away
No one ever dreamed you'd up and walk awayYou'd love to watch me be the throwaway
Just when I can finally seize the dayT-t-take yourself and disappear
You are still no longer welcome here
Fear drives you to act this way
The sum of all you've done will be the debt that you payYou'd love to watch me be the throwaway
Just when I can finally seize the day
With the fear of losing it to you
I'll keep it close and finally break on throughYou'd love to watch me be the throwaway
Just when I can finally seize the day
With the fear of losing it to you
I'll keep it close and finally break on through
Thanks to you
