Cormega

What up with Cormega? Did you see him? Are y'all together?
What up with Cormega? Did you see him? Are y'all together?
One love, yeah I'm about to write this letter, lay it down you knowDear Nas, what up son? It's Mega, I got your letter
Me and my cousin Oogie here together
Aiyyo, your man Duke came through
You should know the situation 'cause we dealing with the same crewAnd you can tell that crabb shorty, I'ma hurt her for fucking
With them niggas from that crew she know we want to murder
Aiyyo that shit about Jerome's niece is foul
She was bringing niggas mad loud when we was locked downPut around town the 4 pounds of glocks on the dime block
Labels are marked now they have they full time lock
Son, fuck the stupidness, shorty be trooping it
Next time you see her, hit her off with some loot and shitDon't forget the kicks I already got flicks
Big Ice hit bricks from C-76
Homicide thieves are ready to blitz, travelers think
String with the grin his razor blade blew six, aiyyoOne love, one life, one mind dreaming
Son, one day I'm leaving
One thug showing you love for one reason
For all my niggas that's locked down and bleedingOne love, one life, one mind dreaming
Son, one day I'm leaving
One thug showing you love for one reason
For all my niggas that's locked down and bleedingYo yo, anyway I heard Black Jay was getting paper
Tell my nigga Nut his man Bass is here from Jamaica
I was holding down a fourth and for a other ton
You couldn't touch a jack unless you had gats or box cuttersI seen an ox cutter, so many features
Niggaz sneaking up and blowing motherfuckers for their sneakers
I seen this kid cut police up for real money creped up
Slid the ills out and blew the beast upYo handcuffs can make a man tough and suffer
My rhymes keep your mind stimulated like a la puffer
Yo this life is type bugged, I'm surrounded by dope fiends and thugs
But I'ma still maintain my brain frames soOne love, one life, one mind dreaming
Son, one day I'm leaving
One thug showing you love for one reason
