Mistreater

Mildred Anderson

Oh yeah
Oh yeah
I love you for you baby
[Incomprehensible]Somethin' 'bout the way she walks
The way she wears her hair
Somethin' 'bout the way she talks
She makes her meaning clearAnimal grace, the angel face
She gets it all for free
You'll be sorry, believe it
She used to put that on for meFire's in her eyes but eyes can lie
Blinded by the light of the starsShe's a mean mistreater
But you just can't leave her alone
She's a mean mistreater
And no, you can't leave her alone
She's a mean mistreaterWe came to town in seventy-five
From somewhere way back east
Whole lot more to staying alive
Than they tell you 'bout down on main streetTook our place, lost in space
Two more dreamers in town
You know the story, believe it
And now she chooses cold companyFire's in her eyes but her eyes lie
Listen mister, take it from meShe's a mean mistreater
You just can't leave her alone
She's a mean mistreater
And no, you can't leave her aloneShe's a mean mistreater
You just can't leave her alone
She's a mean, mean mistreater
No, you can't leave her alone
She's a mean mistreaterFire's in her eyes but her eyes still lie
Listen mister, take it from meShe's a mistreater
She gonna treat you real bad
Real bad bad bad badShe's a mean mistreater, yeah
She's a mean mistreater
No, you can't leave her alone
Stone trick teaser
No, you can't leave her alone
She's a mean, mean mistreater
No, you can't leave her aloneYeah
She's a mean, mean mistreater

Now she's got to [Incomprehensible]
Yeah
