

Underwater Woman

They Might Be Giants

Un-derwater woman
Un-derwater lady
No one on the shore will ever know what's in her heart
Fiercely alive
Will to survive
Able to thrive on her own
Self contained
Properly trained
Hydroponically grown
Un-derwater woman
Breathing underwater
Brushing her hair
Eating a pear
No one can tell when she cries
Away, Away, Away
She scans the ocean floor
With ultrasonic blips
Nothing but rocks and sand and the broken wrecks of ships
Un-derwater woman
Un-derwater lady
No one on the shore will ever know what's in her heart
Laughing uncontrollably
Who's she talking to
Holding up the shell like it's a telephone
Frantically digging through a file of old papers
Intently staring at a photograph
Un-derwater woman
Breathing underwater
Brushing her hair
Eating a pear
No one can tell when she cries
Away, Away, Away
