Lion's Cage

Melee

You simple thing undone by suffering
I'll help you to build back your crumbling wall
Not worth a thing
Brass tacks and angel wings
But you've found your fortune in wear-with-allCould you have wanted it that way?
Could you have wanted it that way?
Would you have stayed
Inside the lion's cage so afraid?You simple thing
Mute lips that softly sing
'Cause fear is the music your heart unfolds
You're worth something
Priceless and worth protecting
If you'll let me build back your crumbling wallCould you have wanted it that way?
Could you have wanted it that way?
Would you have stayed
Inside the lion's cage, so afraid?
