Longing

Derailers

Longing, you found me again
Deep in my heart
That's how it beginsLonging, you always win
I'll never ask why, when I start to cry
Longing againI hear your voice and I see your face
Dreaming at night, I feel your embraceLonging, dreaming and then
Once more I awake, my heart starts to break
Longing againLonging, remembering when
Those sweet thoughts of you, were all that I knew
Longing againI hear your voice and I see your face
Dreaming at night, I feel your embraceLonging, dreaming and then
Once more I awake, my heart starts to break
Longing againOnce more I awake, my heart starts to break
Longing again
