

Ordinary Man

MIKA

Woke up this morning just like every man does walked to the bathroom just like every man does Made my bed just like everyone must Nursed my head my head just like everyone must Spent the day playing Nina Simone
Reorganized every record I own
I see my friends
We drank beer in a can
Half-drunk they smile, "it'll be all right man"
Just like the king who's losing his worth,
I'm like a snob that's fallen to Earth.
Everyone thinks that I'm staying the same
Are they secretly happy that I am in pain?
So you say it's ordinary love,
But that's impossible to do
No such thing as ordinary love
I was ordinary just to you
Does it mean that I'm a regular man
Not as special as I think that I am
As for you all that I want to know
Did you stay up as I tumbled so low?
Just like the king who's losing his worth,
I'm like the sun that's fallen to Earth.
Everyone thinks that I'm staying the same
Are they secretly happy that I am in pain?
So you say it's ordinary love,
But that's impossible to do
No such thing as ordinary love
I was ordinary, just to you
So you say it's ordinary love,
But that's impossible to do
No such thing as ordinary love
I was ordinary just to you
If I was ordinary
And love was ordinary
If I was ordinary
Oh! so very ordinary
If love was ordinary
And I was ordinary

Are you too?
