

I Wanna Change the Score

Tony Banks

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I wanna be in another place
Some other body and someone else's face
Don't wanna be in here
I need a space, I can disappearI wanna play me a different part
Another feeling in someone else's heart
Don't wanna cry out loud
Don't wanna show you, I'm too damn proudYou can change the words you say
Stop the things you do
Throw away your yesterdays
You'll still be stuck with youBut don't be sad
Get a hold upon yourself before you get too far
No matter what you have to learn to live with who you areI wanna live in a different time
Another reason in someone else's mind
I wanna change the score
I don't wanna be me no moreI wanna play in a different game
Another player with someone else's name
Don't wanna be the fool
Don't wanna show you, I can lose my coolYou can stop the world you're on Change the song you sing
Choose defection, wrong direction
That won't change a thingThat's so good
No time to wish your life away, follow your star
Be glad of what you have my friend, be glad of who you areI wanna be like a different man
I wanna set me free if I canI wanna be in another place
Some other body and someone else's face
Don't wanna be in here
I need a space, I can disappearI wanna play me a different part
Another feeling in someone else's heart
Don't wanna cry out loud
Don't wanna show you, I'm too damn proudI wanna live in a different time
Another reason in someone else's mind
I wanna change the score

I don't wanna be me no more
I wanna play in a different game
Another player in someone else's name
Don't wanna be the fool
[Inaudible]
