

The Innocents

Low

All you innocents
Make a run for it
All you innocents
Mark me down for itAll you innocents
Make a run for it
All you innocents
Mark me down for itTo begin with, there's the two of us
Never minding the world
With the armor of a few of us
Losing everything to hopeAll you innocents
Make a run for it
All you innocents
Mark me down for it
