

It Snows In Heaven Too

Annie Haslam

Christmas comes but once a year
Why am I so blue
Then a quiet thought of you
Pulls me through, hoping that it's reaching you.

Are you real or in my mind
Hearts may know the truth
Feeling you are part of me
Sets me free, now I see
And you are real to me.

Times we don't understand
Draw you near
Feeling closer to you
Now I hear it.

Soft white flakes caress my face
On this winter's day.
I feel your love surrounding me
Surely it could only be
It snows in heaven
It snows in heaven too.

Times we don't understand
Draw you near
Feeling closer to you
Now I'm hear it.

Soft white flakes caress my face
On this winter's day
I feel your love surrounding me
Surely it could only be
It snows in heaven
It snows in heaven too.
