

Highway 51 Blues

Bob Dylan

Highway 51 runs right by my baby's door
Highway 51 runs right by my baby's door
    But won't get the girl I'm loving
Won't go down Highway 51 no moreWell, I know that highway like I know my hand
    Yes, I know that highway like I know the back of my hand
Running from up Wisconsin way down to no man's landWell, if I should die 'fore my time should come
    And if I should die 'fore my time should come
Won't you bury my body out on Highway 51?Highway 51 runs right by my baby's door
    I said, "Highway 51 runs right by my baby's door"
    But won't get the girl I'm loving
    Won't go down Highway 51 no more
