

Killing Me

State of Mine

Stand back she's the queen of hearts she'll eat you alive the dirty naughty notch that you have yet she's always on your mind dual stacks she's a 4x4 with a wicked little grin the angel on your shoulder says no but the devil's gonna win (it's one of those nights)

When the lights go down she comes alive the dirty games she's playing with me she sets me on fire it's the hand that I live it's sapping oh please I give my life to her but she's slowly killing me you know she's killing me

Hundred proof that's all she shoots straight whiskey all the time blood-red lips jean hugging hips man it should be a crime drop dead looks she's a perfect ten tattoos are on her skin the angel on your shoulder begs no but the devil's gonna win (it's one of those nights)

When the lights go down she comes alive the dirty games she's playing with me she sets me on fire it's the hand that I live it's sapping oh please I give my life to her but she's slowly killing me she's slowly killing me

She put my heart to the flame the goddess drives me insane (she drives me insane) she tried to steal my soul took away all that I know (she took away she took away)

When the lights go down she comes alive the dirty games she's playing with me she sets me on fire (sets me on fire) it's the hand that I live it's sapping oh please I give my life to her but she's slowly killing me
she's slowly killing me
she's slowly killing me
