Next Time

Rollins Band

I saw this cat leave my pad
And this made me awful sad
But in the mean time I was gettin' madAnd I said, "Baby what explanation do you have?"
She said, "Mm, next time"
What do you mean next time?
No next time baby, that was the last timeI got my hat and headed for the door
I knew I wouldn't be back there no more
And the landlord came up a real cool jedHe said, "Hey buddy, how bout the rent?"
I said, "Mm, next time"
What do you mean next time?
He said, "No next time, you gonna pay me right now"Now after the confusion had all died down
I figured I'd better get outta town but when I arrived at the airport
There stood a man with a notice sayin'
'Bail ya to support'I said, "Mm, next time"
What do you mean next time?
He said, "No, next time, you comin' home right now"They took me to see an old friend of mine
Yeah, district court, room 229
Just say your payments are way behind
I said, "Don't worry daddy, it won't happen next time"And he said, "Mm, next time"
What do you mean next time?
Ain't gonna be no next time, 'cuz you goin' to jail right now
