

Look in Her Eyes

Rod Stewart

See the line all around the block
Watch all the pretty girls looking roguishly hot
Right on time, here come all the dudes
They work the room and validate their crew
(Oh yeah) It's not submission, it's just the look in her eyes
There's no decision, it's just the look in her eyes The joint is jumping, the DJ's settin' 'em free
Johnny from Brooklyn meets Marianne from Queens
They hit it off, he has all the moves
She's fascinated but leaves him looking for clues
She's not pretending, it's just the look in her eyes
She's not suggesting, it's just the look in her eyes
He leads her by the hand, he says "Dance little sister, dance"
Is it one those nights where the stars and the moon collide, aw yeah Don't be fooled by the look in her eyes The sun is rising, he says I'll walk you home
He's got the sweet talk, she's in her comfort zone
He's so smooth, he always gets the girl
But she ain't fooled, her mother taught her well
It's not submission, it's just the look in her eyes
There's no decision, it's just the look in her eyes
She's not pretending, it's just the look in her eyes
She's not suggesting, it's just the look in her eyes
