Unladylike

Isyss

Why are you staring at my man
Don't you know he belongs to me girlfriend, tell me why
You try to take what's mine, I'm not gonna let that slide
Girl I don't like your type don't make me act unladylikeThinking bout speakin' go on step up
And let him tell you that you're fresh out of luck
Disrespecting and shit but it's cool
Baby girl don't be a foolSee me and you were like day and night
But yeah you think he just might give you a chance
Baby girl try and see at a glance he can tell you ain't icyWhy are you staring at my man
Don't you know he belongs to me girlfriend, tell me why
You try to take what's mine, I'm not gonna let that slide
Girl I don't like your type don't make me act unladylikeSneaky eyes don't fool me, you wink at him
Like you don't see me
Are you that bold to disrespect me
In front of my man, girl are you crazy (you crazy)It's cool because my shit is tight
The nigga comes home to me every night
Don't want to be unladylike but I'll pin up my hair
Forget about what I wear to check your ass tonightWhy are you staring at my man
Don't you know he belongs to me girlfriend, tell me why
You try to take what's mine, I'm not gonna let that slide
Girl I don't like your type don't make me act unladylikeWhy are you staring at my man
Don't you know he belongs to me girlfriend, tell me why
You try to take what's mine, I'm not gonna let that slide
Girl I don't like your type don't make me act unladylikeWhy are you staring at my man
Don't you know he belongs to me girlfriend, tell me why
You try to take what's mine, I'm not gonna let that slide
Girl I don't like your type don't make me act unladylike
