Love/Hate

9th Prince

See I love to love you boy
And I love to hate you
See I love to love you boy
And I love to hate you
But I got to let you know
Kelly Minogue
I am so in love, I am so in hate
I just can't comprehend it, uh
You get me so high, you get me so low
I can't show what I'm feelin'
Never was the type to let someone like
You get under my skin, no
Tried like hell but you didn't care for real
You stepped on my feelings
See I love to love you boy
And I love to hate you
But I got to let you know
I'ma have to let you go
See I love to love you boy
And I love to hate you
But I got to let you know
I'ma have to let you go
Love to feel the love, love to heal from pain
Is there really a difference?
Wonder who is right, wonder who is wrong
I'm just feeling some tension
You can't compromise, we can't coincide
We should really be chillin'
'Cause I've wasted so much time, love is on the line
I've made my decision, yeah
It's useless to try and work things out
Don't need all of the stress you're not worth it

I'm tired of all the ups and downs
So goodbye, I'm leaving, made up my mind
See I love to love you boy
And I love to hate you
But I got to let you know
I'ma have to let you go

See I love to love you boy
And I love to hate you
But I got to let you know
I'ma have to let you go
It's useless to try and work things out
Don't need all of the stress you're not worth it
I'm tired of all the ups and downs
So goodbye, I'm leaving, made up my mind
See I love to love you boy
And I love to hate you
See I love to love you boy
And I love to hate you
See I love to love you boy
And I love to hate you
See I love to love you boy
And I love to hate you
