Powerless

Rebekka Bakken

You hid your skeletons when I had shown you mine
You woke the devil that I thought you'd left behind
I saw the evidence The crimson soaking through Ten thousand promises Ten thousand ways to lose
[Chorus]And you held it all
But you were careless
To let it fall
You held it all
And I was by your side
Powerless
I watched you fall apart and chased you to the end.
I'm left with emptiness that words cannot defend.
You'll never know what I became because of you.
Ten thousand promises
Ten thousand ways to lose

[Chorus]And you held it all
But you were careless
To let it fall
You held it all
And I was by your side
Powerless
[Chorus]And you held it all
But you were careless
To let it fall
You held it all
And I was by your side
Powerless
Powerless
Powerless
