Built On Lies (Gangster)

Steriogram

Oh, tough guy, living your rhymes or is it just in your mind?
My mistake, were you actually just living a lie?
Nevertheless, so continuous
I know your playing the part but it's so ridiculousNow I know it's just that you want to feel high
And don't get me wrong 'cause I think it's alright
One thing discovered, one thing I have found
Is that everybody wants to be a gangsterWhen they turn off the light
A vision of a million dollar banner 'Wanted Dead Or Alive'
In the dead of the night I never thought I'd ever see
A world war made up, whole thing built on liesOh, you don't walk, you dance
I love the way you glance at everybody
To intimidate them with your staunch stance
