

Pins and Needles

Joe Ely

I ain't been sleepin', I ain't been eatin'
I've been on pins and needles, waitin' by the phone
 You better call me, you better call me
I've been on pins and needles, waitin' by the phone
You better call me or I'll go crazyI ain't been tryin', I feel like dyin'
 I've been on pins and needles, waitin' by the phone
 You better call me, you better call me
I've been on pins and needles, waitin' by the phone
You better call me or I'll go crazyI should've known when you said, "So long"
 To run another telephone line
 The operator told me said, "Joe, lay low
Before you lose your mind"I should've known when you said, "So long"
 To run another telephone line
 The operator told me said, "Joe, lay low
Before you lose your mind"I feel forsaken, my heart is achin'
 I've been on pins and needles, waitin' by the phone
 You better call me, you better call me
I've been on pins and needles, waitin' by the phone
You better call me or I'll go crazyYou better call me or I'll go crazy
