Jump for joy

Jamie Cullum

I lost my way
On a lazy day
And before too long
I was missing you
It's been a while, maybe 20 weeks
Since we were here
And I was kissing youYou're on my mind, always
Won't be long, just days
And we'll meet under a sky that's made for twoI'll jump for joy
When I see you baby
I'll jump for joy
When I see you baby
I'll jump for joyOver sea of green
There's a distant dream
But it feels more real
As the days move on
And it's good to know, that even though
We're far apart
The heart grows strongI think of you, always
Won't be long, just days
And you'll find me right here where we were beforeI know that the distance between us doesn't matter
I hope you feel the same until we decide it's time
That 5000 miles is too much space in the middle
And we've got to get together
So I can really call you mineI'll jump for joy
When I see you baby
