

The Game's Got a Price

Flipper

I heard but I won't tell
What you said about everyone else
I saw but I won't tell
What you've done with every other one
A wink and a nod
I'll play your game
A nod and a smile
I'll not say a word
Because the game's got a price
And you've got to pay
You've got to pay
Because the game's got a price
