Thou Shall Kill

Six Feet Under

Thou Shall KillI open your body to expose your guts the liver removed the spleen it bursts
A knife in the chest,cutting through innardsI continue to invade your body piece by piece,hole by hole
too much pain for flesh to bear
As I tortureThrown into the grave
The body decays
The soul I have rapedI return to kill another
Victims Unknown
Soon to be butchered slowly
Bodies hanging from hooksThey decay and I fuck them as maggots feed
The corpse has rotted quickly,missing extremities
Toes and fingers turning black Nose and ears hacked offAs gangrene sets in
I return to kill again
Victims unknown
Soon to be butchered slowlyToo much blood leaking from you
Weakening, draining fluid, and pus Turning skin Rigor Mortis sets in
The body bleeds,the heart beat fadesThrown into the grave
The body decays
The soul I have rapedA knife in the chest cutting through innards
Tearing apart,you're screaming
I continue to invade your body
Piece by Piece,Hole by Hole
Too much pain for flesh to bear
As I Torture
YOU!!
