Know Why

Jaden Smith

Wutch doin here?
Girl, who let you here?
Can I whisper in your ear?
Cuz I really kinda need you near
And my mom says you couldn?t come over
Do you really care when you?re pulled up in a Rover?
Said that I should wait, wait til I got older
But love is a war and maybe I?m your soldier
Swag

At the crib like you?re here to see Willow
Everybody know that you?re here to see Smith though
Rolled up in the Philly for the last couple weeks
She?s just chillin, now we gainin cuz she really love the east
But I?m in Cali where the sun come
The city of angels and trust me baby, you?re one of em
Upcoming artist? I?m sorry, I don?t know none of em
Misfitee, I?m sorry hun if you wanted one
I?m just playin, you can have it
Most schools should check it though we got it
Don?t worry girl, you can swag it
I?mma looking down? Sorry girl, that?s a habit
Your body was just around, you make me wanna come grab it
Keep the same ole lyrics up explicit
We really just vivid
Cause when I hang with you I?m always thinkin bout kissin
And my house is like a heaven, I?d love for you to come visit
And listen.. to the smooth track
Aye girl, get your dude back
Man, why?d you go and do that?
Get up in my face and you ruined the mood up
Jeez, told the girl ?don?t worry?
I can get em gone, I just got to tell Siri
Security come running through the hall in a hurry
And took em so fast, it was almost kinda blury
See?

Uh girl, why you lookin so fly? (so fly)
You the baddest, no lie

I wanna get in my room
I knew you was gon try
But before you was actin? all shy
I think I know why
(why why why..)
Girl, I think I know why
(why why why..)
Girl, I think I know why

I got what you need, come take it if you want

Girl, come make it if you want
I don?t care what you wear, come if you want
Even though I couldn?t say it it?s basically what I want
So.. I?m just bugging girl
But the funny part is you know that I wasn?t, girl
I?m just really lonely, I need someone?s loving girl
And you make me so hot and that?s why it feels like an oven girl
And I think I know why

Uh girl, why you lookin so fly? (so fly)
You the baddest, no lie
I wanna get in my room
I knew you was gon try
But before you was actin? all shy
I think I know why
(why why why..)
Girl, I think I know why
(why why why..)
Girl, I think I know why

Aye girl
Feel up your room right now
Listen to this song
I?m right there with you
Just let me hold you
Take my hand
Just rock with me
Girl, just rock with..

Uh girl, why you lookin so fly? (so fly)
You the baddest, no lie
I wanna get in my room
I knew you was gon try
But before you was actin? all shy

I think I know why
(why why why..)
Girl, I think I know why
(why why why..)
Girl, I think I know why

Put your head up on my shoulder
Girl I?m bout to kiss you
Yea, that?s what I told her
So we getting close, only getting closer
And I?m waiting for the kiss til I said ?hold up?
I?m ok that you are older
I just need you on my side when I?mma roll up in that Bentley
And these jockers just resent me
When you met me I was empty
And I?m bout to win a Grammy and these jockers wanna friend me but I?m gone now
