

Halo

Slash

Have you profited to my cold and shallow ways
I'm the Devil you keep inside
'Cause it's all I can do to stay solid every day
Watching all of your days pass you by
But the time has come
To throw your halo down
We may never live forever, so you better live for now
Don't deny it
What you need ain't in the clouds
Here it comes, here it comes
Time to dirty up you halo
Could be living so hard
But you waste your life away
Still afraid to be what you are Still I beg you to try to start loving for today
'Cause regret's gonna bury your heart
But the time has come
To throw your halo down
We may never live forever, so you better live for now

Don't deny it
What you need ain't in the clouds
Here it comes, here it comes
Time to dirty up your halo
You will not obey
You will not obey, defy it
I will lead the way
I will lead the way to burn you down
(Solo)
But the time has come
To throw your halo down
We may never live forever, so you better live for now
Don't deny it
What you need ain't in the clouds
Here it comes, here it comes
Time to dirty up you halo
Put down your halo
Put down your halo
Here it comes, here it comes

Time to dirty up your halo now
