Apologies

Dropping Daylight

On and on we carry on.
We turn off and turn on
the same old song,
and I can't get you to sing along,
so sit down and shut up or leave me.Press rewind, turn back time...
that won't change a thing.What could i say? What could I do?
Send your apologies to me.
I couldn't give anything more.
Send your apologies to me.Today we say a little more.
I forgot what we were fighting for,
and tomorrow you are out the door.
No reply, its goodbye...and its easy.We could re-play every scene...
it just won't change a thing.What could i say? What could I do?
Send your apologies to me.
I couldn't give anything more.
Send your apologies to me.On and on we carry on and never seem to get alone.What could i say? What could I do?
Send your apologies to me.
I couldn't give anything more.
Send your apologies to me.
