

Someday, Someway, Somehow

Brian McKnight

I tried to pull myself together, when I tore us apart
We left so many words unspoken
You walked away with my heart and I cried
I cried Heaven knows how much I cried

Could you find the strength within you to give me one more try
If I called you would you believe what I have to say?

And if I saw you would you turn and walk away?
If I had my way girl you'd be with me right now

Someday, someday, somehow, someday, someday, somehow
I thought that I could go on without you, guess what I was so wrong

And I realized how much I really loved you and it's been far too long
I know you cried, I know you cried, Heaven knows how much I cried

But can you find the strength in you to give me one more try
If I called you would you believe what I have to say?

If I saw you would you turn and walk away?

If I had my way girl you'd be with me right now

Someday, someday, somehow, someday, someday, somehow
So come on, don't I get my one mistake
Let's forget about yesterday, or tomorrow

I know we found what's at the end of the rainbow

And it's meant to be it's meant to be
If I called you would you believe what I have to say?

And if I saw you would you turn and walk away?

If I had my way girl you'd be with me right now

Someday, someday, somehow, someday, someday, somehow
Someday, someday, somehow
