

Circle of the Old

Susan Aglukark

A thousand years has passed and I still feel you Memories can last but do we want them to
It hurts to remember it hurts to forget
We're caught in the middle afraid and regret
I can fight this change What we had was good but have we lost it
All the things must stand but only out of price
Their must be a middle but we over looked We stood of emotion of sitting a hook and I can fight this change
I can fight this change I stood inside the circle of the old
I felt the fear in your heart
I want to be all that you believe in me
Im not afraid of that change
Im not afraid of that change I thousand years has passed and I still feel you Memories can last if they were hold of to I'll keep your picture inside my head
Yours is a memory I wont forget
Im not afraid of that change
Im not afraid of that change I stood inside the circle of the old
I felt the fear in your heart
I want to be all that you believe in me
Im not afraid of that change
Im not afraid of that change Kapiasugilaga, Iligasugilaga, Iligasugilaga, Kapiasugilaga I stood inside the circle of old
I felt the fear in your heart
I want to be all that you believe in me
Im not afraid of that change
Im not afraid of that change A thousand years has passed and I still feel you

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>