Perfect Touch

Sandra

You've captured me and killed all my emotions in your cage of love
Run away, inside I feel the dangerI run from your perfect touch, I want you see me running
I've had too much in a jungle of lovePerfect touch, I want you see me running
Perfect touch, you've killed all I've got, perfect touchLost your game and I'm sure you'll pay for your crime, babe, oh yeah
You strangle me but I know how to get outI run from your perfect touch, I want you see me running
I've had too much in a jungle of lovePerfect touch, I want you see me running
Perfect touch, you've killed all I've got, perfect touchI run from your perfect touch, I want you see me running
I've had too much in a jungle of lovePerfect touch, you see me running
Perfect touch, you've killed all I've gotPerfect touch, I want you see me running
I've had too much in a jungle of lovePerfect touch, you see me running
Gimme me too much, perfect touch
