

Letter Bomb

Lauren Christy

And I'm sending you the sky
And I'm sending you the sea
And it's all for you, for you
From me, from me, from me

And I'm sending you to heaven
Heaven has no jealousy
And it's all for you, for you
From me, from me, from me

Sending you a picture of my bed
Sending you a picture of a gun
Sending you a picture of the Voice inside my head

And I'm sending you the sky
And I'm sending you the sea
And it's all for you, for you
From me, from me, from me

Sending you my coat to keep you warm
Sending you a letter with a bomb
A bomb
Sending you a picture of
The calm before the storm

And I'm sending you the sky
And I'm sending you the sea
And it's all for you, for you
From me, from me, from me

And I'm sending you to heaven
Heaven has no misery
And it's all for you, for you
From me, from me, from me

Under the junk mail
In the hallway
It waits, for you

A kiss, from me

And I'm sending you the sky
And I'm sending you the sea
And it's all for you, for you
From me, from me, from me

And I'm sending you to heaven
Heaven has no sodomy
And it's all for you, for you
From me, from me, from me

And I'm sending you the sky
And I'm sending you the sea
