

Laying in the Sun

Tomorrows Tulips

Don't you look good layin' in the sun?

How come you won't come around?

When I'm the guy that wants to see you, have fun.

Won't you be understood?

When I'm the guy that should be turned on, to everything that you love so every moment can last like when we were young.

Won't you be as clever?

Lookin' up in the grasses now.

Won't you love forever?

To see that things getting better now, while your eyes are smilin, layin in the sun.

Layin' in the sun.
