

Power of the Night

Savatage

Out there, coming closer, quicker
Moving with a swiftness, closing in on me
Children of the metal movement
The legions growing stronger, stronger than they believe It's a power I'm drawing
From the light that's glowing Power of the night, the call of the wild
Power of the night, raise the fist of the metal child Thrashing, screaming, twisting, banging
Heads upon the platform, the witch has been conceived
Children of the metal movement
The armies growing stronger, crack my cranium It's a power I'm drawing
From the light that's glowing Power of the night, the call of the wild
Power of the night, raise the fist of the metal child Out there, coming closer, quicker
Moving with a swiftness, closing in on me
Thrashing, screaming, twisting, banging
Heads upon the platform, the witch has been conceived Power of the night, the call of the wild
Power of the night, raise the fist of the metal child
Power of the night, the call from the wild
Power of the night, power of the night
