Heaven's Blessed

W.a.s.p.

Now I lay me down
A crown of thorns falls from my head
My lord you see my knees I fall
There's never been no time I ever been denied
Almighty lord
Ooh, God in heaven gonna give me
All I want
It's all right, it's all right, It's all right, it's all right
My God's gimme, gimme
All the heaven's blessed
And everytime give me everything I prayed I'd be
My God's given to me all the heaven gives
And everytime give me everything I believe I need
I'm a chosen one, I'm Lazarus
Rising from the dead

My bloody feet and knees I crawl
And my tithes he give me seven times
Gonna give me all I want
God in heaven gonna give me
All I want
My God's gimme, gimme
All the heaven's blessed
And everytime give me everything I prayed I'd be
My God's given to me all that the heaven can give
And everytime give me everything I believe I need
My God's gimme, gimme
All the heaven's blessed
And everytime give me everything I prayed I'd be
My God's given to me all that the heaven can give Ooh, and everytime give me everything I believe I need
