Some

Nils Frahm

Some people think he's good looking
Other people think he's not
Other people know it by heart
Some people don't even know his name
Some people think he likes to go out dancing
One guy I know thinks he's hard to get along with Other people not
But a lot of people think he's fine yeah, a lot of people think he's fine
And he don't even know
Just sees how each day goes

Some people say she's funny
Others say she's shy
Some people say she's stuck-up
Other people say she's dumb
Some people like her for her charm
Some people wanna steal her heart
Some people take her for granted
Yeah, some people wanna steal her heart
And she don't even know
How could that be so
