Why Is Everybody Going Home?

Leo Sayer

And if you say again to me
That we could all be free
I'll have to leave
Look at the sky
It's falling down
The world is spinning round
Without a sound
Where has all the lazy sunshine gone
Can anybody tell me
Why is everybody going home
Can anybody tell me
Can anybody tell me
Can anybody tell me
Oh have you stood
Before the wind
And let it blow your blues
So far away
Look at my life
Oh, what's the use
To everyone I know
Oh I'm a fool
Where have all the smiling faces gone
Can anybody tell me
Why is everybody going home
Can anybody tell me
Can anybody tell me
Can anybody tell me
Can anybody tell me
Can anybody tell me
Can anybody tell me
Can anybody tell me
Can anybody tell me
Can anybody tell me
Can anybody tell me
