Bosa Nova

Two Words!Back track, shot a jay- hawk
Never been to jail because i never get caught
I got smarts, darts, dangerous dog
O-D-B got that right from the start
You've got one end you change from crazy to calm
I've been awake for days from the dusk to the dawnAnd you're loving me whether you want to or not
Well I want you for sure, I am loving you more
I am loving you more X3Two Words!No right from the start
Go sell that shit somewhere further from the heart
Running and running and running and stop
Come on we both new this thing would be hard
I say art, you say class, you think, you askYou say darling am I a chore?
I said I know you love me I am loving you more
I am loving you more X3Take up the perfect code
Slip into wilding wild beat
After all the rest have gone
Give you everything i have ever ownedI know you love me I am loving you more X3
