Stop the Bleeding

Club Yorke

You were weathered and bludgeoned
By nights you had spent in rejoice
And the sounds of the gallows
They howell with a harrowing voice

Did you feel left out
By the sights and sounds
That held your fate

Don't see the ones
You love before they die
Cause it's hardly worth
The pain of being alive

Did you feel left out
By the sights and sounds
That held your fate

Did you need someone
You could learn to love
To ease the pain

Your the cause and effect
Of your own damn mess
But it's not your first
There's a saying that says
That a man is as good as his word

Did you feel left out
By the sights and sounds
That held your fate

Did you need someone
You could learn to love
To ease the pain

We're all loving someone
If only for the night
Doesn't mean we always get it right
If you're afraid of losing

Whatever's on your mind
Then I can tell you babe
We still got hell to pay
But if we don't try
We'll never stop the bleeding

If I said we were done
Would you just turn and run
Be the love of my life
Till the end of the night
And as cold and as dark
As the winters that past
We were meant to be
But we'll never last
And the light of the day
Whilst you caught in the waves
I will come to the surface
Screaming your name
And you'll answer again
But you'll call me a friend
But if we don't try
We'll never stop the bleeding

We're all loving someone
If only for the night
Doesn't mean we always get it right
If you're afraid of losing
Whatever's on your mind
Then I can tell you babe
We still got hell to pay
But if we don't try
We'll never stop the bleeding

Lyrics Submitted by Steph C

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/