My Purity

Sponge

If I was dirt that filled up your life
If I was dirt, so pure and so refined
I'd be the dirt that
That blackened all that shinedWhich one would show a purity?
Which one could show how curious
This purity has been?My purity, my purity
My thoroughness, my purity
My purity, my purity
My thoroughness, my purityMy purity, my purity
My thoroughness, my purity
My purity, my purity
My thoroughnessIf I was dirt that would make you lie
Could I be dirt in your irreverent smile?
Please pass the dirt
I'll have some on mineWhich one would show my purity?
Which one could show how curious
This purity has been?My purity, my purity
My thoroughness, my purity
My purity, my purity
My thoroughness, my purityMy purity, my purity
My thoroughness, my purity
My purity, my purity
My thoroughnessDrag me down and plough me under Nothing stays the same
Drag me down and plough me under
Nothing will ever changeIf I was the dirt you brought Through your doorstep
Did that dirt leave you feeling molested?
How was that dirt that you've ingested?Which one would show my purity?
Which one could show how curious
This purity has been?My purity, my purity
My thoroughness, my purity
My purity, my purity
My thoroughness, my purityMy purity, my purity
My thoroughness, my purity
My purity, my purity
My thoroughness, my purityMy purity, my purity
My thoroughness, my purity
My purity, my purity

My thoroughness, my purityMy purity, my purity
My thoroughness, my purity
