

You and I

Field Music

We lie here
Quiet, waiting for the rain
Hopes wander
Detached from time I stretch out
Quiet, trying to hang on
My conclusions
Out on a limb When we get angry
We can still share the why
Don't need a reason
To play the joy of you and I We black out
Quiet, wait to start again
All explanations
They can wait Watch the time go
Minutes stumble into days
If we could bottle fury
We'd be saved When we get angry
We can still share the why
Don't need a reason
To play the joy of you and I When we get angry
We can still share the why
Don't need a reason
To play the joy of you and I
