Not In This Lifetime

Joe Diffie

Maybe a day will come
When you look into my eyes
And you won't see the love you saw beforeMaybe a day will come
When the words you need to hear from me
Are gone with the closing of a doorBut not in this lifetime
Not in this lifetime
It's too impossible to do
Not in this lifetime
Could this heart of mine
Be for anyone else but youMaybe a night will come
You'll reach for me and find
That I'm just a stranger that you hardly knowMaybe a night will come
When all this love I'm feeling for you now
I won't feel anymoreBut not in this lifetime
Not in this lifetime
It's too impossible to do
Not in this lifetime
Could this heart of mine
Be for anyone else but youThere could never be a moment in my life
No, not a single minute
That didn't have you in itNot in this lifetime
Not in this lifetime
It's too impossible to do
No, not in this lifetime
Could this heart of mine
Be for anyone else but you
Be for anyone else but you
