

Is It Time For A Kiss

Miles Jaye

Is it time for a kiss
Song by Miles Jaye

Lyrics

Verse:

Here we are! Alone again tonight we see you be so close,

Oh your eyes are saying what i want to hear.
Are you ready girl for something more.

Chorus:

I want my lips to touch your lips
Let my finger tips caress you all day
Let my smile touch your smile
I wanna hold you in my warm embrace
Is it time for a kiss my dear
Tell me that the moment is near
Is it time for a kiss my dear
I wanna know how it feels

Verse:

We`ve been seeing one another seems like so long
You won`t let me in your heart
Always draw the line hold gone is my desire
Trying not to show what`s on my mind

Chorus:

X3
