

Time To Break Up

Blink 182

I guess its only the men
Who get fucked now and again
We take our chicks to the mall
We wait in parking stalls
And when we come home too late
She's pissed that she had to wait
And my excuse not to call
It never worked at allTime to wake up
Where's your daughter?
Hurt's to break up
She was stronger
All my friends say
Please don't love her
What did I gain?
Now I miss her soI used to hate the lipstick
It stained and tasted so sick
The pantyhose and the bras
She threw on my guitars
Shit fuck I made a mistake
I thought I needed a break
The truth is I'm such a dick
It's broke and can't be fixedTime to wake up
Where's your daughter?
Hurt's to break up
She was stronger
All my friends say
Please don't love her
What did I gain?
Now I miss her soIf you wanna call it a heartache
Then I shouldn't regret those things, I miss her
If you want the pain to go away
Better suck up your pride and admit you lost her
Let her go, move on, let her go, move on, let her goTime to wake up
Where's your daughter?
Hurt's to break up
She was stronger
All my friends say
Please don't love her
What did I gain?

Now I miss her so Move on, let her go, move on, let her go
Move on, let her go, move on, let her go
