

The Palpitations Form a Limit

Omar A. Rodriguez-Lopez

Might I crave a crawling imposter head held for miles to come simply slice a prayer to answer as the daylight lets me run of all the schemes that you've conducted this one makes it safe erasing all my fond memories of a life you couldn't take we all have those disasters they let you know they run can't you never stay any longer as long as you still run
