

Unwritten Christmas

Unwritten Law

Remember when I was 10
Looking forward to Christmas again
Everything, I enjoyed
Like the family Christmas tree and the toys And I'd wake up early morning
While Mom and Dad still snored in bed
So, I crept down the steps
Couldn't wait to see what Santa had left, now I could not wait
For Christmas day
Wait for Christmas day, now Don't wanna wait, gettin' late
March upstairs to give my parents a shake
Get out of bed, sleepy head
Christmas doesn't start until you are awake As we gathered around the tree
I opened everything they gave to me
So, I stayed and I played
Why can't it be Christmas everyday, now? I could not wait
For Christmas day
Wait for Christmas day, now But I
(But I)
Will have to wait for Christmas
I will have to wait for Christmas
I will always wait for Christmas day, now Woke up Christmas morning and guess what I saw
I saw Unwritten Law and Sum 41 rockin' raw
With a message for the kids saying they should be nice
Not naughty 'cause Santa knows karate He's on the cross fader, hip-hop parader
Got Wade on the beats like AC Slater
If you're good like Wally or bad like The Beev
Only Santa knows the score come Christmas Eve But I
(But I)
Will have to wait for Christmas
I will have to wait for Christmas
I will always wait for Christmas day, now I could not wait
For Christmas day
Wait for Christmas day, now
