

An Ordinary Day

Bent

It began just like another ordinary day, and an ordinary way

I watched you hurried by, you looked so shy

It began just like another ordinary day, and an ordinary way

I watched you hurried by, you looked so shy It began just like another ordinary day, and an ordinary way

I watched you hurried by, you looked so shy

I watched you hurried by, you looked so shy I watched you hurried by

I watched you hurried by I watched you hurried by

I watched you hurried by I watched you hurried by

I watched you hurried by
