

Boyfriend?

Laura Bell Bundy

Can I call you my boyfriend yet?
That make you nervous, that make you sweat?
Swore we wouldn't commit
But baby, we're a perfect fit
People look at me confused when I lovingly
Refer to you as my Man toy, lover boy, sweetheart that brings me joy
Better half, sweetie pie
Yes, I'm still seein' that same guy
No labels, no fuss, livin' in the now for us
Or can I call you my boyfriend?
Man toy, lover boy, come over here and bring me joy
Man toy, lover boy
What's a big boy like you afraid?
I'm not lookin' to change my name
I don't need a diamond ring
Just an easier way to explain this thing
I don't wanna scare you away
But baby, give me something better to say
Than my Man toy, lover boy, sweetheart that brings me joy
Better half, sweetie pie
Yes, I'm still seein' that same guy
No labels, no fuss, livin' in the now for us
Or can I call you my boyfriend?
My daddy asked my momma, my momma asked my friends
My friends all wanna date me when this comes to an end
Don't get me started, got the keys to your apartment
I'm just sick and tired of havin' to pretend
That you're my Man toy, lover boy, sweetheart that brings me joy
Better half, sweetie pie
Yes, I'm still seein' that same guy
No labels, no fuss, livin' in the now for us
Or can I call you my Man toy, lover boy, hey, hey, hey
Better half, sweetie pie, well, oh
No labels, no fuss, livin' in the now for us
Or can I [incomprehensible] call you my Man toy, lover boy, come over here and bring me joy
Better half, sweetie pie, lovin' on the fly guy
Ain't just a bootie call, I'm on the way
My pictures on the wall and I'm here to stay
Ba, ba, ba, ba, ba, ba boyfriend
Ba, ba, ba, ba, ba, ba boyfriend
Ba, ba, ba, ba, ba, ba boyfriend
Ba, ba, ba, ba, ba, ba boyfriend
