Astor Voltaires

Stumbling along looking at nothing
Because your eyes are always on your feet
If you ever looked up you'd see the sun
And the morning - you wonder why things are so bleak? Chorus Boring and old
Are the things you're told
About the outside world
An' just wearing black
Won't take care of that
Don't be stupid girl Walking and always talking
But never listening, you just kick back
So how do you handle all the bullshit
That gets thrown in your way?! You're down on your knees
Trying to appease
Somebody's mixed up statement
'Cause in not much time
Your beliefs are that lies Will be left by the pavement Chorus They'll be left by the way ...I've been doing some thinking
'Bout all your preaching, an' I don't want to know!
'Cause that's just conforming
And that is not what you want to be. Chorus They'll be left by the way Oh left by the pavement Oh don't be so stupid girl - you're in your world
All dressed in black
Won't take care of that
Don't be, be so stupid girl
