Until My Heart Stops

Jessica Lee

I'll be your thunder, your lightning.
The fire in your veins.
I'll be your harbour, your refuge.
Your shelter from the rain.

I'll be the melody to your symphony.
The song under you skin.
I'll be you saviour if you let go.
So let go and let me in.

Cause this could be everything you wanted.
I'll give you everything I have.
This is a promise now or never.
I'll be yours now and forever.
Till my heart stops, beating in my chest.
Till time ends.
Love will never end.
I swear you never have to be alone.

I'll be you sunlight, your moonglow.
The only air you breath.
I'll be your wonder, your answer.
And all the in between.

I'll be the wind that blows,when the storm cloud grows.
The one to fuel the flame.
I'll be your safe house, when there's no home.
And there is no one left to blame.

Cause this could be everything you wanted.
I'll give you everything I have.
This is a promise now or never.
I'll be yours now and forever.
Till my heart stops, beating in my chest.
Till time ends.
Love will never end.
I swear you never have to be alone.

One dream,one life.
One love, one hope.

One perfect ending, we got it all.
One dream,one life.
One love, one hope.
One chance to see.

That this could be everything you wanted.
I'll give you everything I have.
This is a promise now or never.
I'll be yours now and forever.
Till my heart stops, beating in my chest.
Till time ends.
Love will never end.
I swear you never have to be alone.

Till my heart stops, beating in my chest.
Till time ends.
Love will never end.
I swear you never have to be alone.

I will be your thunder your lightning.
The fire in your veins.
